

No translation will be issued

Subjects	T1	T2	Student	Class	–	+	Curriculum content covered during the period	Comments
LITERARY STRAND	13,70	13,40	14,90	13,00	9,50	17,10
FRENCH Mrs FALEDAM	13,00	12,30	14,10	12,60	8,70	17,30	- Acting in society: the individual and power (a 20th-century work) - Consolidating lexical and grammatical spelling. - Denouncing the failings of society (satirical texts and documents...) - Moving from intuitive use of argumentation to a more controlled use. - Expressing oneself in a controlled manner when addressing an audience.	A good term. Maëly has remained serious and receptive to advice, which is very good. I encourage her to continue reading in French in order to retain the knowledge acquired.
HISTORY-GEOGRAPHY Mr ONGARO	14,30	14,40	15,70	13,40	10,00	17,60	- Affirmation and implementation of the European project - Issues and conflicts in the world after 1989 - The European Union, a new territory of reference and belonging - France and Europe in the world - The Fifth Republic, from the Gaullist Republic to alternation and to t[...]	A fine third term that rounds off a year conducted perfectly, with rigour and consistency. The level attained is very good and Maëly is ready for the next stage of her studies.
SCIENTIFIC STRAND	16,80	14,10	15,40	15,10	10,20	18,30
MATHEMATICS Mrs DERIEN	14,40	14,00	11,90	13,10	8,40	19,10	- Functions (linear functions) - Probability - Transformations of the plane (axial and central symmetries, translations, rotations, dilations) - percentages	A satisfactory term. Maëly produces serious and consistent work.
LIFE AND EARTH SCIENCES Mr LIM	17,70	11,10	15,30	14,90	9,00	18,60	- Natural resources, ecosystems and human activities	A good term carried out diligently. Exemplary attitude in class. Well done.
PHYSICS AND CHEMISTRY Mr GIRARD	15,00	13,40	15,60	15,00	9,30	17,50	- Signals to observe and communicate - Identifying sources, transfers, conversions and forms of energy	A very good third term and significant progress for Maëly. The year's overall results are positive in Physics-Chemistry. Keep up this momentum next year.
TECHNOLOGY Mr LOSFELD	20,00	17,80	18,80	17,90	15,80	18,80	- Imagining, designing and programming software applications for mobile devices. - Collaboratively producing the prototype of all or part of an object to validate a solution. - Organising, structuring and storing digital resources. - Taking part in the organisation and running of projects. - Express[...]	Exceptional both in results and in constant involvement, this year has been crowned with success. The student has combined speed of execution with quality of work, while taking an active part in class life. The behaviour is exemplary, as is the seriousness shown by the student.
LANGUAGES STRAND	19,10	17,00	17,50	14,70	8,00	19,50
MODERN LANGUAGE B – SPANISH Mr MAS	19,10	17,00	17,50	16,00	11,30	19,50	- Understanding written texts of different genres - Understanding spoken texts of different genres - Knowing a key moment in the history of Spain - Describing a visual document: photograph, drawing, painting, poster, etc.	A very good school year across all the skills assessed. An overall outcome matching the expectations of the Troisième year.
INTERNATIONAL SECTION	14,90	14,90	16,30	14,90	12,00	17,40
HISTORY-GEOGRAPHY (Int'l Section) Mr SMITH	16,30	14,60	16,40	16,20	14,00	19,00	- GP: Individual Report Skills - Tourism	Another good trimester and year from Maëly, who has been a consistently hard-working and serious student. She has also made good progress with her participation and confidence when speaking in class. Maëly has approached the challenges of the DNB and Global Perspectives course with a positive attitude and mature approach throughout the year. Well done.
BRITISH LANGUAGE, LITERATURE & CULTURE Mrs DESHPANDE	13,40	15,20	16,10	15,20	12,50	18,60	- Participate in a conversation with a high degree of spontaneity and ease - Develop ideas from a text and present them appropriately paying attention to tone, format and context - Presenting a theme through selected texts - Speak clearly and purposefully using fluent language about ideas fr.	Maëly has earned a fine report. She has demonstrated consistency and sincerity in her efforts.
SPORT AND ARTS	15,70	17,00	17,70	17,00	15,00	18,80
VISUAL ARTS Mrs BELBACHA LARDY	17,80	17,00	18,50	18,10	15,80	20,00	- Establishing links between one's own work, the works encountered or the approaches observed - Taking into account the conditions of reception of one's production from the creative stage onwards, paying attention to the modalities of its presentation, including digital - Proposing and supporting the analysis and interpretation of a work - [...]	An excellent term! Maëly has listened to the advice given; as a result, her work has gained in precision and distinctiveness. Well done!
MUSIC EDUCATION Mrs NGUYEN	15,70	19,40	18,00	16,60	13,10	19,20	- Listening to, comparing and building a shared musical culture - Exploring, imagining, creating and producing - Western music, 19th–20th century - Romeo and Juliet	Excellent term. Excellent sound-creation work on exiled composers. Good work on the Music of Antiquity and on the Romeo and Juliet activity. Well done on the excellent preparation for the blind test on musical genres!
PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND SPORT Mrs LAURENT	13,50	14,50	16,50	16,30	14,00	18,30	- Helping classmates and taking on various social roles (starting judge, timekeeper...) - Assessing performances - Managing one's effort, making choices to achieve the best performance - Drawing on the body's expressive capacities - Taking an active part.	A very good final term during which Maëly maintained her standards of conduct: seriousness, hard work and perseverance. She thereby achieved good results. Best wishes for the future!
MORAL AND CIVIC EDUCATION Mr ONGARO	16,40	16,40	15,80	13,60	9,50	18,30	- Understanding the relationship between citizens' engagement and students' engagement - Knowing the main principles governing national defence	A very good term. You have shown great seriousness and a solid grasp of the concepts. The foundations are well in place for the DNB and for the lycée. Very good, Maëly!

Absences: 5 half-days, 3 of which are unjustified – No lateness
Decision taken by the Head of School:
Seconde générale et technologique (General and Technological stream)

Overall comment: Maëly is an excellent student of impeccable seriousness. Her ability to produce rigorous and consistent work is a valuable asset for the next stage of her studies. We congratulate her on this successful third term and wish her all the best for the future.

The Head of School

[Signed]